

The MUSA Star Zone

Hopes - Goals - Dreams

Caring for the Stars of the Future!

Summer Day Program

Limited Scholarships Available on a First-Come, First-Serve Basis

- June 14 to August 20, 2010
- Located in the Community of Homestead
Located at Homestead United Presbyterian Church,
908 Ann Street, Homestead
- 7:00 am to 6:00 pm
- Weekly Field Trips & Swimming Activities
- For children in grades K thru 6
- Breakfast, lunch and dinner daily
- Educational enrichment activities

REGISTRATION: at The Steel Valley
Council of Governments Bldg.

1705 Maple Ave., Suite 203
Homestead, PA 15120

- Bring 30 days proof of family income, child's health insurance card and social security no.
- CCIS, CYF and Employment Related Payments welcomed!
- Please call for appointment: (412) 461-1800

For info Contact

MUSA

A Community Center for the Steel Valley

Serving the Steel Valley
Community for over 85 years

Jim Cannistraci, Executive Director
Aldine Coleman, Education Director at 412-461-1800

Email: jcannistraci@musa1.org

This program is funded in part by the Pennsylvania Department of Community and Economic Development.

Our staff is caring, nurturing and qualified!

Over 80% of our staff are teachers or college students majoring in education